Texas Business Leadership Council Congratulates Wynn Rosser on Being Named Texas' New Commissioner for Higher Education

AUSTIN, TX – The Texas Business Leadership Council (TBLC) congratulates Wynn Rosser on becoming Texas' next Commissioner for Higher Education after a unanimous vote of the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board.

Debra Chromy, president and CEO of Trellis Company and the Co-Chair of the TBLC's Education Taskforce said: "I want to congratulate Wynn and express my gratitude to the Coordinating Board for their thoughtful decision. The beneficiaries of their selection will be the citizens, educational institutions, and employers of Texas."

Justin Yancy, president of the TBLC, said: "For over 15 years, I've witnessed Wynn Rosser's deep commitment to excellence in higher education through his work to improve access and increase success for all Texans. Wynn's experience and strong leadership will greatly benefit our state and its people."
